

Salmon Arm Security Inc.

Policy for use of SAS social network pages

POSTING:

Salmon Arm Security (SAS) welcomes and encourages individuals to view and contribute to our Facebook/ Twitter page but we ask that postings are both relevant and respectful. SAS reserves the right to remove any content that is deemed inappropriate or offensive by SAS. Such content includes, but is not limited to, irrelevant content not directly related to SAS, offensive or obscene language or comments (including racism, hatred, slander, threats, violence, vulgarity), derogatory references to specific SAS members by name, photograph, regimental number or any other personal identifiers, spam, advertisement, personal information about another person, comments that encourage or suggest illegal activity, and links to inappropriate or offensive websites. Comments that could damage the company's image or public trust will be removed.

CONSEQUENCES:

Anyone acting contrary to these rules may be reported to Facebook/ Twitter and/or temporarily or permanently banned from our Facebook/ Twitter page. Please note that any content posted is in the public domain. Posts concerning criminal activity, including violent or threatening posts and/or posts admitting to or relating to knowledge of criminal activity, will be reported to the police and could become the subject of investigation and form the basis for criminal charges. Postings are subject to all applicable Federal and Provincial legislation.

For any questions, comments or to report a violation please contact our webmaster/ social media coordinator

Skyler Plourde splourde@mail.com

www.salmonarmsecurity.ca

250-515-0420